Maintain and update your knowledge and skills through the extensive range of professional development opportunities offered by AICM.

The CCE program is only offered through AICM. CCE is an award recognising current knowledge and practice in the credit industry and is the AICM's commitment to maintaining professional excellence in the field of credit management.

CCE is an important catalyst to staff development. It will encourage managers and potential managers to expand their knowledge beyond their particular area of specialisation, whilst continuing to learn and grow in the market place.

CCE tells your employer you are motivated and accomplished together with being up to date in your knowledge of credit management skills. Additionally this indicates you are working to maintain high standards in the credit field.
