This seminar will discuss electronic document management processes and strategies as they apply to the credit management process. The seminar considers whether, and which, typical credit management documents are suitable for electronic storage, evidential considerations that typically arise in court proceedings, and best practice for your document storage processes.

Gareth Brodie is a director of White Cleland and has practiced in commercial litigation and dispute resolution since 2006. He is experienced in all aspects of debt recovery and insolvency and practices in the Federal, Supreme, County and Magistrates' Courts and VCAT. Gareth has extensive experience advising clients regarding credit management processes and practices, and the various legal avenues available to creditors to enforce payment of outstanding debts.

Gareth is a member of the Law Institute of Victoria and the Australian Restructuring, Insolvency and Turnaround Association. Gareth also spent twelve months working in bankruptcy law in the United Kingdom.
