

Australian Institute of
CREDIT MANAGEMENT

Queensland Division
Half Day Legal Symposium
16th March 2018

National Partners

Brendan Nixon

Registered Liquidator and trustee, SM Solvency Accountants - law reforms giving creditors greater rights to request information from liquidators

Brendan Nixon is a registered liquidator and trustee at SM Solvency Accountants. Brendan's career in insolvency began in 2002. He has worked on a variety of different types of insolvency engagements in his career, and is proud to share his experience with members of the Australian Institute of Credit Management at any time.

David Grant

Lawyer, Boss Lawyers - the proposed changes to "phoenix company laws"

David is a dispute resolution and litigation lawyer based in Brisbane with Boss Lawyers. David acts and advises in all aspects of commercial disputes but specialises mainly in contractual and commercial disputes, company and director disputes (including the application of insolvency law), building and construction disputes (including disputes with the Queensland Building and Construction Commission), as well as appearing for clients in Federal and State Courts and the Queensland Civil and Administrative Tribunal in contested matters.

David acts for small private companies, directors, trustees, professionals and individuals, and has developed a reputation for being a tough but principled litigator and trusted advisor to his clients.

To find out more about David and the work that we do, visit the Boss Lawyers website at www.bosslawyers.com.au.

Australian Institute of
CREDIT MANAGEMENT

Queensland Division
Half Day Legal Symposium
16th March 2018

National Partners

Ray Marshal

Lawyer, Thomson Geer - new privacy laws that require you to notify any affected persons

Ray is a lawyer in Thomson Geer's Intellectual Property, Technology and Regulatory team in Brisbane.

Ray's practice focuses on technology and regulatory issues, including (but not limited to) intellectual property enforcement, and technology and internet legal issues including competition law and privacy issues. He has advised both vendors and customers of IP and IT (both public and private sector) in registration and protection of intellectual property rights and interests, and ICT commercial disputes and agreements (including cloud privacy issues in respect of major cloud computing deployments by government).

Nicholas Boyce

Associate, Results Legal - the new laws on “safe harbour” and “ipso facto clauses”

Since joining Results Legal, Nicholas has specialised in the legal recovery and commercial litigation practice areas of the firm.

Further, Nicholas has extensive experience acting on behalf of creditors in defending unfair preferences claims and disputes over personal property against liquidators under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and Personal Property Securities Act 2009 (Cth) respectively.

Nicholas has acted on behalf of a range of business clients across industry segments including government, building and construction, professional advisers, recruitment and financial services.

Nicholas strives to fully understand each client's individual needs to develop strong relationships, clearly communicate commercial strategies and options and ultimately deliver outstanding results.

